PROCESS MODELING

A process is a sequence of activities that is carried out to fulfill a specific task. It may relate to any external or internal tasks, such as organizing an event, running a training, writing a grant proposal, or crafting an annual plan.

Process descriptions are typically written with a standardized set of symbols called Business Process Notation. The four most simple elements are activities, events, decisions (also called gateways), and flows.

Some simple examples

Further Reading:

https://camunda.com/bpmn/reference